Emmie travels long and wide in South Africa with lovingly prone distress calls about AGA's, Esse's, Rayburn's, Ellis de Luxe's, and many other anthracite, wood and coal burning furnaces. She has prepared this book to help owners with her key issues, and she hopes you enjoy learning how to keep your AGA in particular. Other furnaces work on much of the same principle, so it would be useful for any owner of a solid fuel cooker. Specifically for South African owners, but applies to any AGA. The book is priceD R125. If you want to purchase a copy, please make a payment via EFT to FNB account number 50930062612, Branch code 221325 together with the e-mail heathmane@gmail.com and the book will be sent to you. It is available in PDF format, with bookmarks and can be read on any electronic device. If you prefer a printed copy, the price is R250, except for mail and packaging. Of the many things that AGA's do well, slow-cooked dishes rank among the best. So here are more than 100 great recipes; easy, economical and full of rich and vibrant flavors. Braised chicken and chicory, pork with honey and apricot and Boston baked beans are just some of the store's delights. The book also includes traditional oven times, so all chefs enjoy these fabulous recipes. AGA is much more than an oven: it's an icon, it's a statement, it's a way of life. AGA cookers have never been more popular, and the AGA culinary queen is undoubtedly Amy Wilcock. Here is her final AGA Bible, with 300 classic, timeless recipes and bags of tips and tips for AGA owners. Here are all the essential recipes that every AGA owner needs to know – from how to prepare a full English breakfast on AGA, make soups, cook fish and toast meat to bake cakes, pastries and bread. Delicious family food includes beef stroganoff, steak, mushroom and horseradish pudding, and bacon and egg pie, and there are stunning dinner party recipes such as Rillettes duck with roasted brioche, chicken marsala with oranges and ascot and parmigiano, thyme and rosemary risotto. Amy also seduces tastebuds with a delightful variety of desserts and cakes including raspberry souffles, chocolate pecan tart and lemon meringue cake. And there are 30 new and exclusive recipes such as Moules marinières, crab and coconut soup and Apple and onion tart. All recipes are common cooking instructions, so even non-AGA owners can enjoy delicious Amy dishes. AGA range cooker is a joy to behold and a privilege to cook.
